

Lost Object Found with Dowsing, Incredible True Story.

By Jasun Light

To anyone who ever had any doubt about the Validity of Dowsing for a Lost Object, let this True Story, eliminate any of your doubts once and forever. The following story is True in every respect. I experienced it first hand. And I write this story purely, so that it opens Dowsers minds to the Infinite Possibilities that Dowsing holds, if we approach it with the utmost respect, responsibility, and reverence.

I am a Novice at Dowsing. Four or Five years ago I heard a few recordings of Harold McCoy, and once went to a beginners workshop, led by Walt Woods. Dowsing was something that intrigued me, that I believed was an Interesting topic for investigation, but not something that I had an interest in pursuing myself. That is not until I lost something very precious and dear to me. A one of a kind, Rock/Wood natural object I found in Colorado, some 20 years ago, and had lovingly polished for 10-15 hours.

Occasionally, I had from time to time been going to my local Dowsing Chapter to find out what new areas of interest were emerging in the way of Awareness of Higher Levels of Consciousness. Being a big fan of Psychology, Philosophy, and Mysticism, I found the Dowsing Community, to be friendly, and very open to accepting "rubber-neckers", like myself, who stick their necks inside the meetings to see what is going on, yet haven't plucked up the courage to jump into the Dowsing Community, with both feet first.

Well all that changed, because of the story I am about to tell you. Every word of it is True. I have no need to exaggerate, or fabricate details. This Story is a Testimony to the Veracity of Dowsing.

Some two and a half years ago, I moved residences. I put much of my things in Storage, and kept many precious things at my apartment. I had also accumulated quite a number of books, on various topics, in an effort to satisfy, my unquenchable thirst for knowledge. Books are one of the most common artifacts and decorations you will find at my place.

Then one day, I remembered my Rock/Wood object. Where was it? Was it in Storage? Did my Ex-Wife have it? If it's in my apartment, why can't I find it??? I looked high and low for 2 to 3 days, everywhere "important", where I would keep such a valuable object. Where can it be??? My frustration mounted.

Then I remembered. I should get a "Dowser" to find it. I got out my address book, made some initial inquiries, and asked who is a Dowser who specializes in finding lost objects. The answer was a nice lady by the name of Marge Hefty. Which just by coincidence I had met only rarely when I went to the Dowsing Chapter meetings. We barely knew of each other. But I found her phone number, and I gave her a call.

"Hi Marge, you may not remember me, but this is Jasun Light. I was wondering if you could please do me a huge favor, and dowse for a lost object for me.? It's has a lot of emotional, sentimental value to me, and I don't know where it is? It could be at my Ex-Wife's House, it could be at my place, I really don't know. Can you please help me??"

"Hang on, let me get my pendulum," Marge replied. Then silently she asked her Dowsing System, May I ? Can I ? Should I ?, yes, yes, yes."

Marge continued, "OK, I can do it." "Just tell me how big it is?". I told her, "It's only about half the size of the palm of your hand." (That was THE ONLY information I gave her about what it was).

Then while working over the phone..... Marge proceeded to ask her Dowsing System, a series of questions, "Is it at his Ex-Wife's house? No. Is it at his house? Yes. Is it in his Living Room? No. Is it in his Dining Room? No. Is it in his Kitchen? No. Is it in the Spare Bedroom? No. Is it in his Master Bedroom? Yes. Then she asked me where the door was to the bedroom. I told her it was in the Southeast corner of the Master Bedroom.

Marge continued asking her Dowsing System, " Is it on the East Wall? No. Is it on the West Wall? No. Is it on the North Wall? No. Is it on the South Wall? Yes. Is it on the floor? No. Is it one foot off of the ground? No. Is it two feet off of the ground? Yes. Marge stopped the Dowsing session, and told me what she found out. "Your lost object is in your Master Bedroom, on the South Wall, two feet off the ground." I thanked her, and told her that if it was there, I would send her a bouquet of flowers.

I did not rush in immediately. I wasn't mentally prepared to know right away. So I did some chores, just relaxing myself, to take my mind off of it for awhile. And then about 15 minutes later, I was ready to go have a look.....

I went into the Master Bedroom. On the Southside of the wall, there is a Nightstand, which is about two feet tall. There on the nightstand, is a Huge pile of books, probably 20 or more books all piled up. I slowly removed the books, one by one. And there, on the nightstand, at the bottom of the pile, my jaw dropped open, and I couldn't believe my eyes. There was my Rock/Wood object!!!

"OHHHHH MYYYYY GODDDDD!!!!!!!!!!!!", I was speechless. Needless to say, I was on my knees, and I said a silent prayer of thanks and extreme gratitude to the Field of Infinite Intelligence, that makes Dowsing possible. After I had managed to integrate what actually had just happened. And I had let myself calm down for ten minutes, I called Marge Hefty back on the phone, and told her, "Oh My God!" Thank You, Thank You, Thank You, Thank You!! My deep gratitude to Marge, was beyond what any mere words could express.

I asked her how it works. She gave me a brief explanation, saying that my Super-Conscious Mind knew where it was all along. She simply and politely asked her Super-Conscious Mind to communicate with mine, and her Dowsing System gave her the answer, through the micro movements of her fingers, and the physical eyesight of the pendulum, swinging in the correct direction.

Several leading Dowzers told me, that there is nothing mysterious about it. It is simply another normal Altered State of Consciousness, where the brain is operating simultaneously across all brain wave frequencies, and working in a zone of optimum performance. This altered state is something which anyone can learn to utilize with practice, and profound humility.

Being a Novice at Dowsing, I am not about to try and explain anything further than that. All I know is that DOWSING WORKS!! And for any skeptics out there, all they need is to EXPERIENCE IT FIRST HAND, and they will fall silent.

I always believed that Dowsing Works. Now I KNOW IT WORKS, because I have first hand experience.

Subsequent to this event, I have taken a serious interest in Dowsing, attending the Southwest Dowsing Conference, in Flagstaff AZ, 2007, and making some new friends within the Dowsing Community. I want to develop my own Dowsing Skills, but only with the greatest respect, responsibility, and reverence, for this awesome gift from the Universe.

I have only seen a glimpse of what Dowsing can do. But I firmly believe, that the Art of Dowsing is still in its infancy. And that the amount of help we can receive from the Field of Infinite Intelligence is only limited by our own beliefs, and our capacity to Ask the proper questions on behalf and for the benefit of all creation.

A Call to Action to anyone who reads this article: Ask your Dowsing System to help you and help others, and start teaching these skills to a younger generation, so that we can bring in new disciples into this ancient art, who will use it with the highest Ethics, to build a better world, and a brighter future for coming generations.
